Testament - My Last Will

(Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis - INRI - J.N.R.J.)

Everything is and remains the property of my son, Alexander D'Amicis - born on --.--.----.

The costs of the burial, transfer, and funeral are and remain to be borne by the municipality or town hall, and nothing will be charged to the survivors or relatives.

No law can revoke this!

The burial of my body must take place in the location where I died.

Next to my body will be placed the Shroud of Turin, which also belongs to me.

The body must be uncovered, except for the area of my pubic hair, where a cloth will be placed. That means: the remaining clothes will be removed from me, and everything will be given only to my son Alexander, from socks to coat, from belt to hat, as well as necklaces and bracelets, and the case with my "inscribed Holy Scripture."

Whoever approaches or touches my body must be a non-smoker and non-drinker, free from any addiction* . (So be it!) Amen!

I am, the Cross.
Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis

* Moreover: Not a Pappone (the definition is explained in my book for everyone), not homosexual and not transsexual, without colors and dyes on hair or body, without tattoos, without piercings!
